

Faculty of Nuclear Sciences and Physical Engineering CTU

FNSPE main building

FNSPE insignia

CTU ceremony hall

- Established in 1955 with the mission to train new experts for the emerging Czechoslovak nuclear programme.
- Currently a centre of education and research specialised in boundary fields between modern science and their applications in technologies, medicine, economy, biology, ecology, and other fields.
- Departments: Mathematics, Physics, Humanities and Languages, Solid State Engineering, Physical Electronics, Materials, Nuclear Chemistry, Dosimetry and Application of Ionizing Radiation, Nuclear Reactors, Software Engineering